STRIKERS WATCH TROOPS

OTTAWA, Ill. July 13.—Quiet reigned in the LaSalle and Oglesby strike zone tonight with the arrival late this afternoon of A company of Rock Island and B company of Genesee of the Sixth Illinois Infantry, Colonel Charles G. Davis of Genesee commanding.

The troops were stationed at the German-American Portland Cement Works in LaSalle.

None of the militia were sent to Oglesby tonight, but Colonel Davis said he would ask for additional troops to be sent to guard the cement mills there.

Several hundred strikers and their scene tonight and tomorrow night their tents tonight. The crowd was orderly.

Officers of the State Federation of Labor and the American Federation of Labor met in LaSalle today.

Five Companies Called Out
Springfield, Ill., July 13.—Five companies of the Sixth Infantry, I. N. G., tonight were at LaSalle and Oglesby, Illinois, or rushing there to assist the sheriff of LaSalle county in suppressing acts of violence among the 1200 cement workers who have been on strike for nine weeks.

Adjutant General Dickson commanded all Illinois troops departed for the scene tonight and tomorrow morning will assume personal charge of the situation. Governor Dunne said tonight he would go to LaSalle tomorrow "to get first hand information of the situation, and if the opportunity presents itself to do everything possible towards settling the strike."

A and B companies, each about forty men strong, from Rock Island and Genesee respectively reached LaSalle early tonight. C company will leave Oglesby on the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy at mid-night. D company of Oak Park will leave Chicago on the Rock Island at 1 a. m. and E company will leave Sterling on the Interurban and at Dixon will board an Illinois Central train for LaSalle. These three companies and General Dickson should be at LaSalle by daylight tomorrow.

Davis Asks for More Men

At the request of the city and county officials at LaSalle, Governor Dunne this morning ordered two companies to the scene under the command of Colonel Charles G. Davis. Tonight Colonel Davis telegraphed to Governor Dunne that he would need three more companies to control the situation as the strikers were scattered over an area of eight miles, between LaSalle and Oglesby where the cement works are located. The governor then ordered the mobilization and entrenchment of three more companies.

A total of about 1500 men from these three companies will entrain tonight, according to reports received by Colonel Stephen O. Tripp, assistant quartermaster general of the state troops, who is left in charge of the adjutant's headquarters here while General Dickson is away. Colonel Tripp and Governor Dunne kept in touch with the situation and the movement of troops to the strike scene by telephone.

TRAINLOAD OF FORAGE FOR USE OF PERSHING HELD UP IN JUAREZ

EL PASO, Texas, July 13.—Shipment of a trainload of forage consigned over the Mexico Northwestern railroad to private individuals in Casas Grandes, Chihuahua, for use of General J. J. Pershing's expeditionary command was held up in Juarez tonight upon orders from General Francisco Gonzales, commanding the Carrancista army in northern Chihuahua. General Gonzales said he acted on instructions from General Jacinto Trevino in Chihuahua. Shipments of the Mexican railway for the American troops in Mexico which had been forbidden during the recent crisis were only resumed by permission of the Mexican authorities this week. The incident was not generally regarded as serious, but negotiations almost underway with Mexico City thru channels other than the military will clear away any misunderstanding which may have been responsible for the orders.

Numerous rumors were current in El Paso tonight—that the Juarez Garrison contemplates an early revolt against the authority of the de facto government.

NAME DENVER MAN GUARD BY NOBLES OF MYSTIC SHRINE

Minneapolis is selected as Meeting Place for 1917 at Closing Session.

Buffalo, N. Y., July 13.—James C. Burger of Denver was elected to the office of outer guard, the first stepping stone to the highest office in the order, at the closing session of the 42nd annual meeting of the Imperial Council, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine here today. David W. Cleveland of Montgomery, Ala., led up to the fourth ballot in a field of five candidates.

Minneapolis was selected as the meeting place for June 26th, 27th, and 28th, 1917.

All the imperial officers advanced one station according to custom, except the secretary and the treasurer, respectively, William S. Brown of Pittsburgh and Benjamin W. Rowell of Boston, who were re-elected. Henry N. Niedringhaus of St. Louis thus became imperial potentate.

Dispositions were granted to Kziz Temple of Roanoke, Va., and Soudan Temple of Newburn, N. C. The only temple to get a charter was Alafair of San Antonio, Texas. The applications of Champaign, Ill., and Topeka, Kans., were put over until next year. An application for a charter for the Panama Canal zone was refused.

WILSON SPEAKS IN CAPITAL
Washington, July 13.—President Wilson in an address here today, again denounced as disloyal those foreign born citizens who "draw apart in spirit and organization to seek some special object of their own," and added a warning to native Americans that they cannot teach good citizenship unless they themselves are imbued with the principles of Americanism.

SHARK HUNTERS PATROL COASTS

Make Concerted Effort to Exterminate the

REWARD BY MATAWAN

Three Sharks Are Seen in Matawan Creek and Are Believed to Be Bottled Up There

FEW VENTURE INTO WATER

NEW YORK, July 13.—Armed shark hunters in motor boats patrolled the New York and New Jersey coasts today while others lined the beaches in a concerted effort to exterminate the man eaters which have moved north from their customary haunts, apparently in large numbers. The village authorities of Matawan, N. J., offered a reward of $100 for every shark brought in dead or alive.

See Half Dozen Monsters.
The belief that a single shark was responsible for the killing of four swimmers in New Jersey waters within the last two weeks, two of them yesterday in Matawan Creek, a shallow inlet 16 miles from the open sea, has been dispelled by persons who actually have seen half a dozen or more of the monsters.

One theory is that sharks which formerly fed on refuse from the many ocean steamships that plied before the war began, now have become ravenous and are driven by starvation to lurk in the waters of the Atlantic coast, warm at this season and attack human beings.

Three sharks were seen today in the Matawan creek and now are believed to be bottled up there. Nets have been stretched under a bridge to prevent access into Raritan Bay. A British sloop arriving from Bermuda was reported tonight to have killed a score of sharks during the voyage, one of them off the New Jersey coast. At beaches along the New York and New Jersey coasts comparatively few persons now venture into the water.

Some New Jersey resorts have strung wire nets around the bathing areas.

Finds Peculiar Poison.
Dr. George B. Reynolds of Matawan, who attended Stanley Fisher, who was so seriously mangled in a battle with a shark yesterday that he died a few hours later, performed an autopsy on Fisher's body today. He declared he found that the flesh torn by the man-eater's teeth was impregnated with a peculiar poisonous liquid which seemed to have a deadening effect on the nerves and muscles.

Little hope is entertained for the recovery of the body of 12 year old Lester Stillwell, the other victim of the Matawan Creek tragedy. It is believed that he was devoured by the shark.

Many conflicting reports were received from points along the New York and New Jersey coasts regarding the killing of sharks, but only one appears to have had any foundation in fact. This was brought in by the captain of a fishing boat who said his party of New York fishermen had clubbed to death a nine foot shark weighing 450 pounds.

A fisherman reported tonight that he had vainly tried to kill with an oar a seven foot shark which became entangled in his nets. He said the fish tried to strike his boat apparently intending to overturn it. A small shark also was reported to have been caught near Budgeport, Conn.

FIVE KILLED; ONE MISSING AND THIRTY INJURED IN EXPLOSION

EXPERTS TELL OF PROGRESS IN COMBATING INFANTILE PARALYSIS

Have No Epoch-making Discoveries, to Proclaim—Dr. Flexner Declares There Is No Occasion for Panic.

New York, July 13.—Leaders in the medical profession, public health experts from many cities, philanthropists and charity workers attended a mass meeting tonight for discussion of the infantile paralysis epidemic.

Those who hoped that a cure for the disease would be heralded or that isolation of its deadly germ would be announced were disappointed. Dr. Simon Flexner of the Rockefeller Foundation Institute for Medical Research and other experts told of the progress made by medicine for combating the disease, but they had no epoch-making discoveries to proclaim.

Dr. Flexner declared that there is no occasion for panic. He asserted that the death rate from infantile paralysis is lower even than from other maladies considered far less serious. He had a message of cheer for anxious parents in the announcement that in a large percentage of cases there are complete recoveries.

Dr. Haven Emerson, health commissioner of this city told what is being done to fight the epidemic and asserted the widespread alarm which parents feel is not justified. He said that out of 2,600 suspected cases investigated only 1,640 true cases of infantile paralysis had been found of which 308 resulted fatally.

REPORT NO NEW CASES OF INFANTILE PARALYSIS TO THE STATE BOARD

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 13.—No new cases of infantile paralysis have been reported to the Illinois State Board of Health during the last 24 hours. It was announced this morning by Dr. C. St. Clair Drake, secretary of the board. All the known cases have been investigated by representatives of the board and 30 have been confirmed. All these patients now are under strict quarantine and close watch is being kept in communities where unrecognized cases existed for several weeks and where opportunity for spread of the infection has been great on account of the lack of quarantine.

BERNSTORFF VISITS SHIP

German Ambassador Spends Hour Aboard U-Boat—Congratulates Captain Koenig

VESSEL UNDERGOES REPAIRS

BALTIMORE, Md., July 13.—Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador spent an hour aboard the German submarine merchantman Deutschland today. He inspected the vessel from stem to stern, had intricate machinery and instruments aboard explained to him and personally congratulated Captain Koenig upon bringing his vessel safely to America thru waters infested with hostile warcraft.

Heat Prevents Longer Stay.
Two attaches of the German embassy the German and Austrian consuls in Baltimore and Mayor Preston, accompanied the ambassador on his visit to the submarine. The intense heat inside the hull of the vessel, generated by sun rays beating upon the deck and sides, prevented the party from remaining aboard longer than an hour.

The ambassador informed Captain Koenig that he would send to him before the Deutschland starts on her return voyage, several packets of official papers which he desires to have delivered intact to the Berlin foreign office. Some of these documents embassy officials have been reluctant to trust to the regular mails because it was considered likely they would fall into the hands of British censors.

Ambassador Enthusiastic.
The ambassador was enthusiastic as he emerged from the conning tower of the Deutschland.

"It is a wonderful boat and, with as courageous a crew as ever sailed the sea has made a wonderful voyage," said he. "I climbed up and down every hatchway, looked into every compartment and had my first experience with a periscope."

"Captain Koenig did not tell me just when he expects to leave for Germany but I presume it will be soon after he has his return cargo aboard."

"He is in complete charge of the vessel and has his orders from Berlin. His craft is a private one; just as much as any North German Lloyd liner. My visit was entirely unofficial."

The ambassador came here from New York. He also attended a luncheon at the Germania Club, given in honor of Captain Koenig. Tonight he was present at a dinner given by Mayor Preston to the commander of the submarine.

Building Zeppelin Freighters.
City officials who visited the submarine today quoted Captain Koenig as saying that Zeppelin airship freighters are being built in Germany for trans-Atlantic service.

"To you, Captain Koenig was quoted as saying, "the trip of the Deutschland is a great achievement. You mustn't be too enthusiastic over it for a bigger surprise is coming. A great Zeppelin airship or maybe I should say airships are being built in Germany. In the not distant future one or more of them will sail thru the air to the United States. Just as sure as the Deutschland came to America so will the Zeppelins come."

The Deutschland having discharged her cargo, is undergoing some minor repairs which are being made by members of the crew. Their task seemed to have been completed tonight and the work of loading her cargo, consisting principally of crude rubber and nickel should begin tomorrow or next day.

Thousands of persons have visited the dock where the Deutschland lies. Some have viewed the craft from the shore but almost as many have come as close as possible in launches and yachts. Guards and policemen are maintaining a vigorous watch to prevent visitors from coming too close.

Efforts have been made by interests acting for the Eastern Forwarding company to have an American pilot accompany the Deutschland on the return voyage to Germany. It is said, so that the Deutschland might proceed up the bay to Baltimore on the second voyage, from Germany without stopping to take on a pilot.

ROOSEVELT ABANDONS PLAN.
New York, July 13.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt has abandoned, for the present at least, his plan to raise a division of volunteer troops, according to an announcement tonight by Regis Post, former governor of Porto Rico, who has had charge of recruiting. Mr. Post said the plan had been dropped as war now seems unlikely.

WILKERSON BEGINS ARGUMENT FOR ORPET

INTEND TO HAVE CASE IN HANDS OF JURY SATURDAY

Mrs. Edwin Taylor of Madison, Wis., Is Summoned To Appear Before Lake County Grand Jury In October—Assert No Other Summonses Have Been Issued.

Waukegan, Ills., July 13.—Sometime tomorrow, probably in the afternoon, the last argument of counsel in the case of William H. Orpet, charged with the murder of Marion Lambert will be begun and by Saturday night it is the intention to have the case in the hands of the jury.

The culminating effort of the defense in the behalf of the young collegian was begun this afternoon by James H. Wilkerson, chief of his counsel and when he concludes tomorrow the last word for the defense will have been spoken. In all six lawyers will have been heard.

Information leaked out today that the state is in a receptive mood as to procedure against any persons who may have figured in the backwardness of Wisconsin witnesses, none of whom appeared to testify, or who may have influenced the testimony of those who actually took the stand.

The information came from Mrs. Edwin Taylor of Madison, Wis., at whose home Orpet had a room while attending the University of Wisconsin. The secret carefully guarded by the state's attorney, Ralph J. Dady, and Sheriff Elvin Griffin, was that Mrs. Taylor was served last Tuesday with a summons to appear before the Lake county grand jury at its regular meeting next October.

Assistant State Attorney Eugene H. Runyard explained that Mrs. Taylor was served merely as an anchor windward in case it developed that an investigation by the inquisitorial body became advisable as she could not be served after her return to Madison. It was said that no other summonses were issued by the state in the present case to testify as to the rumpled bed which formed a part of Orpet's attempted alibi. She declined to testify, but appeared in court as a friend of the Orpets as soon as the evidence was closed, and has listened closely to all of the arguments.

Thruout the case the state has made thinly veiled charges that H. G. Carlin an investigator for the defense influenced the Wisconsin witnesses to remain away. Witnesses for the defense in many instances were grilled as to their conversations with Carlin. Mr. Wilkerson's theme today was that the presumption of innocence which the law grants every defendant until he is proved guilty makes clear and innocent every detail of the evidence urged against the defendant.

"The cornerstone of the case of the prosecution," said Mr. Wilkerson, "rested on the fact that Orpet spent the night of February 8th, in the garage near the greenhouse where cyanide of sodium, then thought to be cyanide of potassium, was kept. Marion died of cyanide of potassium poisoning and when the cyanide was discovered in the greenhouse the state jumped to the conclusion that Orpet poisoned her and with the presumption of guilt has bent every innocent circumstance to fit that theory."

SOCIETY WOMEN ESCAPE DEATH
WHEN LIGHTNING KILLS CADDIE

NEW YORK, July 13.—More than a score of society women including Mrs. Oscar Lewisohn, formerly Edna May, the actress narrowly escaped death from lightning on the grounds of a golf club at Great Neck, Long Island, late today, when Felix Jacobus, a caddy was struck and killed within a few feet of them. As the body of the caddy was carried from speech in Ohio, another in Illinois fell on their knees and prayed. The Great Neck tragedy occurred while Mrs. Lewisohn and Mrs. Charles H. Goddard, wife of the president of the golf club were engaged in an exciting game. They were negotiating for position when Jacobus, holding the tin was hit and fell dead in front of them.

Three other persons were killed by lightning, much property damage was caused and electric train service was badly crippled by a violent thunderstorm accompanied by a six-mile gale from the west which swept this city and vicinity. The temperature dropped seventeen degrees in 15 minutes bringing relief from the intense heat.

Both Sides Hurling Huge Reinforcements Into Titanic Struggle

TOWN OF KOVEL PRIZE

British Hold Gains on Their
Portion of Somme Front—
French Hold Captured Ground

TWO IMPORTANT STATEMENTS

The most violent fighting in the great entente allied offensive is on the eastern front where General Brusiloff's tremendous blows are being continued without apparent lull or hesitation. Temporarily at least, the Austro-Germans appear to have halted the Russian advance along the Stokhod. Both sides are reported to be hurling huge reinforcements of men and guns into this titanic struggle, the prize of which is the immensely important strategic town of Kovel.

Further to the south a battle of almost equal intensity is raging on the lower Stripa where the Russians are striking north in an effort to crush General Von Bothmer and flank the entire Austro-German line. The Austrians admit that the Russians penetrated Von Bothmer's front at some points but assert they were driven out again in counter-attacks. The Russians claim to have taken 2,000 prisoners but make no mention of a gain in territory.

The British have held their gains on their portion of the Somme front and the usual period of consolidation and the pushing forward of the big artillery is presumed to be taking place.

A similar situation exists on the French line and a remarkably brief French official statement of Thursday night simply records the continuance of the bombardment at Fort Souville in the Verdun region.

Two important statements in regard to the situation on the western front were made in London on Thursday. Premier Asquith, speaking in the house of commons declared that the British supply of munitions was ample and that the Franco-British offensive was merely at its beginning.

The second statement was made by Minister of War Lloyd George, addressing an allied conference on equipment. The minister of war declared that the British output of ammunition will soon be overwhelming and that the new factories and workshops have not yet attained one third their full capacity. He asserted that the tide of victory now is flowing in the direction of the entente allies and predicted that it would continue to do so.

WARREN AND WILCOX CONFER OVER HUGHES CAMPAIGN TRIP

NEW YORK, July 13.—Charles B. Warren of Detroit, and Chairman Wilcox had a long conference over the proposed trans-Continental trip on which the Republican presidential nominee, Charles E. Hughes, expects to start early in August. A tentative program provides for one speech in Ohio, another in Illinois and a third in Michigan on the trip west, the two weeks stay in the Rockies on which Mr. Hughes is counting, and a return east from California by the southern route. Mr. Warren declined to make public any further details until Mr. Hughes approves the program. Mr. Hughes returned to Bridgehampton this afternoon to get to work on his speech of acceptance which will be delivered July 31st, in New York when he is formally notified of his nomination.

For President.

CHARLES E. HUGHES.

Ammunition for All.

The arrival of the Deutschland and its captain's somewhat bombastic talk of the extensive shipping service to be established as soon as the fleet of submarines is ready, should put an end to one of the favorite accusations made by German sympathizers against the U. S. Since so many of these submarines will soon be plying the seas between Germany and the U. S., bringing their cargoes of merchandise, why not reload them with ammunition and other munitions of war? The Deutschland has furnished the means for the Germans to secure their share of American arms and the old complaint charging the U. S. with unfairness and of virtually continuing the European war is now of no effect.

As a result of the death of Mrs. Betty Green the estate of Sylvia Ann Howland which has been in charge of a trustee for a long period will now be distributed among the descendants of Gideon Howland and there are 1700 entitled to share in the estate, which has a value of $1,035,557. There are a lot of the Howlands but with such a large estate each one will receive a worth while sum.

They are evidently endowed with more intelligence than frequently characterizes the heirs to legacies for there has been no intimation of a suit and the 1700 prefer to get all that is coming to them rather than to spend a large portion of the estate in the courts. Their action is an object lesson worth remembering.

The story of the accomplishment of the Deutschland and the statement made by Capt. Koenig read like a romance or a chapter from the Arabian Nights. But a few days' time as one considers all of the captain's story and especially his prophecy, spoils much of the effect. Judged by the accomplishments of the past decade, ten years of the future will mark marvelous development in water and air craft. However there are certain elemental principles which must be taken into consideration, and the average mind is not yet convinced that the submarine and the airship will be the preferred or common methods of travel, even at so distant a day as 1926.

Making Water Consumers Pay.
The city officials of Galesburg are having a lot of trouble with water consumers who fail to pay their bills promptly. The superintendent has been in the habit of notifying consumers by telephone when their bills become delinquent and thus in a personal way suggesting to them that payment will avoid the necessity of having the water shut off. But of late people have grown so careless and caused so much trouble to the water department that the superintendent has announced that there will be no more telephone calls and that failure to pay a water bill by the 20th will certainly mean that the meter will be taken out. Water consumers in all cities get careless about their water bills but there is no case on record where a meter has actually been taken out and the water shut off where the consumer has ever again failed to remember that payment was due on a certain date.

Fair Deal for Candidates

The plan which Secretary of State Stevenson has adopted for handling state primary election petitions, like the plan adopted by County Clerk Burrill to the county primary, simplifies election matters in large degree. The time was when in order to secure the first place on a primary ballot the candidate must in order to secure first place on a primary ballot the candidate must "stand in line" for 24 hours or more or else employ someone to perform this service. Candidates for state office in their effort to secure first place on the primary ballot have sometimes had men stationed before the door of the secretary of state 48 hours before the filing time. The state secretary will give first recognition to petitions sent thru the regular channel of the mail and will give secondary consideration to those which are sent by registered mail or delivered in person.

Locally the candidates will receive a still fairer deal as the county clerk will shuffle all the petitions in a big box and enter them on the ballot in the order in which they are drawn from this box. The two plans are sensible, indeed, and fair in all respects to the candidates. There are complications enough for election officials with the primary law without any being added, and the two plans referred to serve to simplify rather than to complicate.

Lining Up The Candidates

A series of conferences between the Deneen and Progressive forces in Chicago has enlightened political affairs this week. According to a story in the Chicago Tribune yesterday, thru the Deneen-Progressive alliance Progressives will probably name candidates for secretary of state, state treasurer and lieutenant governor on a ticket with Morton B. Hull as the governorship candidate. It is said that notwithstanding the strength thus far shown by Frank L. Smith, that the Progressives plan to give their support to Senator Hull. On this same slate may be Hugh S. Magill of Springfield for lieutenant governor, B. F. Harris of Champaign for state treasurer and Howard Jayne of Monmouth for Secretary of State. The Deneen people will also insist upon George H. Wilson for attorney general. Mr. Wilson is strongly backed by the anti-saloon league forces.

It is stated in the Tribune's write-up that the Progressives feel favorable to the candidacy of Andrew Russell for state auditor and will probably have no names on their slate for that office unless it be Mr. Russell himself. The definite announcement of the ticket supported by the Deneen and Progressive forces, the Tribune says, will likely be followed by announcement of the Lowden slate, including Lowden for governor, Ogilby for lieutenant governor, Emerson for Secretary of State, Andrew Russell for auditor, Len Small for Treasurer and Richard J. Barr for Attorney General.

War Stocks Slump.

Warnings have been issued from time to time for more than a year past advising the uninformed to let war stocks alone. In the early days of the European war, the marvelous advances in the quotations of certain stocks made the undue speculation resulted. Vast fortunes were made sometimes in a day.

Those familiar with Wall street and with financial affairs generally knew it was but a question of time until a slump would come. That time has arrived and now some of the fictitious values are disappearing. The reason is that munitions orders are decreasing quite rapidly and this means that the firms which have been devoting all their attention to the manufacture of goods for these orders must devote their energies along other lines and seek out new markets.

The slump in munitions orders does not mean that the close of the war is at hand but that in the past year the allies have made vast strides in equipping themselves for the manufacture of their own munitions. This course has been followed not only for the sake of economy in the first cost of these munitions but further as a protection to the industries of the allied countries.

The lowering prices for the war stocks were just as certain to come as night follows day, but the warnings issued from time to time had no great effect upon many who were enveloped in the whirlpool of speculation, and thus coming weeks and months will be pretty certain to leave some financial wrecks where there has been the appearance of great profits.

HIGH SCHOOL ANNUAL IS FRESH FROM THE PRESS

This Year's "Crimson J" Does Credit to School and the Editorial Board

After delays very annoying to the editorial staff, "Crimson J", the high school annual, came yesterday from the Roach press and a very creditable volume it is. The delay was occasioned principally by the inability to secure the cuts at the expected time. Some of the subject matter was also slow in coming in, but subscribers to the book after examination will conclude that it is well worth waiting for, and there is certain evidence of the able work which the staff of editors and their assistants performed. The cover is an artistic combination of brown and red and the printed pages are in tones to correspond.

In the early pages of the book appear pictures of the high school and David Prince building, together with an excellent cut of Charles E. Collins, formerly superintendent of schools. The book is dedicated to Miss Agnes Rogerson and Mr. Paul E. Morrison, "in appreciation of their friendship and work with us during our school life, we, the senior class of 1916, respectfully dedicate this volume of the "Crimson J".

The editors state in the foreword that they have endeavored to embody in the book those things which they considered most vitally interesting and important in the school year, and above all to include those things which will be true and constant reminders of the delightful years spent as students in the high school. The contents are divided into histories of the classes, organizations, departments, dramatics, athletics and jokes. A page is devoted to the memory of Paul Lee Wells, a high school instructor whose untimely death occurred recently, and another "In Memoriam" page does honor to Harold Boyd, Charles King and Paul McManara.

One very interesting feature of the book is found in the presentation of the pictures of the class members as they appear now and their pictures as children a year old or less. The contrasts are interesting, indeed. The volume is profusely illustrated with halftones of individuals and organizations and there is every indication that the board was exceedingly liberal in the expenditures made. The "Crimson J" does credit to Jacksonville, the high school and to the editorial board which included Hilda Rose, William Bartlett, Lola Markule, Edward M. Tomlinson, V. C. Coover, James Hain, Nellie Priest, Helen Paschall, Joan Coulter, Frank Robinson, John Martin, Minnie Baker and Elizabeth Russell. The books as they came from the press yesterday were taken by Edward Tomlinson to the Tomlinson store and the distribution will be made from that place.

VIRGINIA CODY DIED FROM BURNS THURSDAY NIGHT

Little Child Was Fatally Scalded
When She Tipped Boiling Kettle
From Stove.

The death of little Virginia Marie Cody, eighteen months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cody occurred last night at nine o'clock at the residence on Pine street, as the result of burns received yesterday morning at 10:00 o'clock.

The child was in the kitchen with her mother and Mrs. Cody was cooking a pot of beans and went to the stove to look after them. She turned away and the little girl, child like thought that the would do the same thing mamma did. She went to the gas stove, reached up and caught hold of the kettle, and in doing so tipped the entire boiling contents over her head and body.

The child screamed and Mrs. Cody immediately began stripping the clothes from her body and neighbors were soon at hand. Two physicians were immediately summoned and they dressed the wounds as quickly as able. Every attention that could be had was given the child, but to no avail and the sad ending came last night at nine o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Cody will have the sympathy of the entire community in this sudden sorrow which has come to their home.

Rippling Rhymes By WALT MASON

THE AUTO

The auto fills a long-felt want, for it enables us to jaunt far from the city streets, and we can breathe the country air, and hear the toll-worn farmer swear and watch him husking beets. Before the auto made its bow, we seldom looked upon a cow or saw a setting hen; and all we knew of babbling brooks and sylvan dells, we learned from books, writ by some weary pen. The country seemed so far away! And when we'd toiled, the long, sad day, we could not journey there; we stifled in our dismal rooms, amid the city's smells and fumes, and longed for country air. The auto's brought the country near; and from our foreheads disappear the frowns and the frowns; and we can take our willing wives, and put some sunshine in their lives, by jogging out of town. Oh, we can seek the rural vales, and see the cattle wag their tails, and hear the roosters crow; and we can drink the country breeze, and wind our car around the trees, and chortle as we go. The auto is a boon to men; it's making old folks young again, it keeps us all enthused; it makes each day a holiday; it drives the cares of life away—when it is sanely used.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Leake and Child Were Thrown From Vehicle But Only Slightly Injured.

A buggy belonging to Alfred Leake a local rural letter carrier was damaged to considerable extent and Mr. Leake and family who were occupying the rig all received some injuries, when an automobile driven by a local garage man struck the rig from behind on the Hardin avenue road Wednesday evening about 9:30 o'clock.

Mr. Leake who was driving the rig said that a large car first passed him going very rapidly. He pulled out to the side of the road and stopped waiting until the dust had partly cleared away. He heard another car coming behind him but the dust caused by the first car was so thick that the driver could not see him until near at hand. The second car was not going over fifteen miles an hour, but it was too late to get the machine stopped until it had hit the back end of the buggy and caused the horse to break loose and turned the buggy on its side, pinning Mrs. Leake beneath it and throwing the five year old child to the side of the road. Mr. Leake was thrown under the wreck and received one or two scratches. The driver of the car immediately stopped and assisted the wrecked parties into his car and took Mr. Leake to a doctor who dressed his injuries, and from there he took the family to their home.

Mrs. Leake and the child received only minor bruises.

The car driver reported last night that he had paid all damages. This is another case of too much dust as was the motorcycle accident which occurred last Sunday afternoon on the Sinclair road. The blame can be attached to no one as the dust was so thick that a driver could hardly see three feet ahead. The report that the two cars were racing could not be substantiated and the fact that no more damage was done than there was, proves that the second car could not have been going at a very high rate of speed. Mr. Leake said yesterday afternoon that he certainly appreciated the treatment received from the car driver after the accident had occurred.

Sheriff Grant expects to attend the meeting.

HOT WEATHER PREVAILS AGAIN OVER GREATER PART OF COUNTRY

WASHINGTON, July 13.—Hot weather prevailed again today over the greater part of the country, moderated slightly in the Ohio Valley and northeastern states by thunder showers and continued heat is forecast by the weather bureau for an indefinite period. A storm on the south Atlantic coast, which caused the issuance of hurricane warnings by the weather bureau is expected to bring only temporary relief to the eastern part of the country. The west today reported high temperatures, usually above 85 degrees.

The present hot period, bureau officials explained is a result of the shifting of a high pressure area from the north where it remained in the spring, causing abnormally cool weather, to the south, from which direction hot winds now are blowing.

STATE LAW STRICT ABOUT THE SCHOOL BUILDINGS

Seats Must Conform To Certain Requirements and Windows Required To Be Spacious.

In addition to the other troubles it is possible that members of the Jacksonville school board may be called upon to make certain alterations in public school buildings in order to meet requirements of a new state law governing the specifications and equipment of school buildings. This law requires that the rooms with stationary desks must have two sizes conforming with measures specified by the law, and that the desks must be placed certain required distances apart.

In Galesburg, where school buildings were recently inspected, the board found it necessary to remove and rearrange 3,000 desks. Another requirement of the state law is that each school room shall have a window space equal to from twenty to twenty-five per cent of the floor space. This provision is made in order to guarantee the necessary amount of window lighting. Other state requirements relate to ventilation and it is likely that the board will have all the local schools inspected to see that all the requirements are met. The law allows a period of a year within which to make any such needed changes.

SPRINGFIELD HAS ONE FATALITY DUE TO THE INTENSE HEAT

Street Thermometers Register Above
100 Degrees—Capital Has First
Rain in Twenty-one Days.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 13.—One fatality due to the heat, the first this year, occurred here today when a negro woman was stricken while at work. The maximum temperature here today was 97.4 degrees between three and four o'clock in the afternoon, according to the thermometer of the government weather bureau. Street thermometers registered above 100 degrees.

Tonight Springfield has had its first rain in twenty-one days. With one exception, all the bathing places in the city were ordered closed by the board of health today because the long drought had made them unsanitary. The only one to which the public will be admitted, must be made more sanitary, the board ordered.

Rain Breaks Heat Wave

Des Moines, Iowa, July 13.—The heat wave which has prevailed here for more than two weeks was broken today with a heavy downpour of rain. The temperature fell from 94 degrees at 2 o'clock to 70 degrees at 5 o'clock. Weather bureau officials stated that the rain, if general, would be worth more than $1,000,000 to Iowa farmers. During the storm, W. Trowbridge, 24 years of age, was killed by a stroke of lightning.

Quincy Reports 100 Degrees

Quincy, Ill., July 13.—The government thermometer registered 100 in the shade here today. No prostrations were reported.

WISCONSIN SOLDIERS NOW FIGHTING MUMPS IN CAMP

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, July 13.—The Wisconsin soldiers now are fighting mumps in their camp. A number of cases were discovered in the Illinois camp several days ago, and today the first cases were noticed in the Wisconsin encampment nearby.

There now are seven cases of the mumps at the base hospital, and every precaution is being taken to prevent the disease from spreading. In the hospital there also are five Illinois patients who have been suffering from pneumonia. Their condition is reported as improving by army surgeon. Several platoons of the Eighth Illinois Regiment engaged in battle practice today at open formations.

Today was the coolest of any since the Illinois soldiers have reached camp, the mean temperature being 76 degrees and a cool wind added to the comfort of the soldiers.

LEVINSKY OUTPOINTS DILLON

Baltimore, Md., July 13.—The 15-round decision bout between Jack Dillon and Battling Levinsky, light-heavy-weights, arranged to take place at Oriole Baseball Park here today was changed to a ten round no-decision affair because of poor attendance and corresponding reduction in gate receipts. The men entered the ring at 6:10.

Levinsky outpointed Dillon in almost every round and punished him severely in the latter rounds. No decision was given.

CREIGHTON DENIES APPEAL

Springfield, Ill., July 13.—As the result of a decision by Judge Creighton of the Sangamon county circuit court today denying the cities of Elgin and Aurora an appeal, those municipalities have been given until December 31, 1917 to comply with the ruling of the Illinois rivers and lakes commission which ordered the construction and operation of a septic tank for the disposal of sewage.

ANNOUNCE NEW RATES

Washington, July 13.—An increase from 4 to 4 1/2 percent on thirty to sixty day commercial paper for the Chicago district was announced today by the federal reserve board and new rates were set for the Kansas City district of 3 to 4 percent on commodity paper, 3 1/2 to 4 percent on ten day paper.

URGE LORIMER TO RUN

COMPLIMENTS FOR

MRS. HARTMAN

where Mrs. Florence Pierson Hartmann appeared recently in a recital:

"Mrs. Florence P. Hartmann captivated the audience in her chosen group of three songs. Mrs. Hartmann is an acknowledged artist of high rank in her line. She has a pleasing personality, and to this added those essential tributes, ease in delivery, a clear mental conception, and a flexible and well modulated voice, rich in tonal shading. She gave a fine interpretation of the varying sentiment of her well balanced group of songs. She was heartily welcomed by the audience, and repaid it by responding to a generous encore."

The above article shows the appreciation of Jacksonville artists in other cities as well as our own. Mrs. Hartmann has been a teacher of voice at the Illinois Woman's College for a number of years.

HOW THE GOVERNMENT AIDS FARM ADVISER WORK

Circular Issues by College of Agriculture Explains Details—Co-Operative Demonstration in Home Economics.

The University of Illinois has issued a circular giving in detail the plans for co-operating in the work of securing county advisers. The circular also explains about the aid which the government gives to the farm adviser work thru the Smith-Lever bill. Facts are also outlined about the special demonstration service in home economics provided by the university. The facts set forth in the circular are as follows:

On May 8, 1914, the President of the United States approved the Smith-Lever bill entitled "an act to provide for cooperative extension work between the agricultural colleges in the several states and the United States Department of Agriculture."

This act was the result of a somewhat extended feeling that the dissemination of knowledge was not keeping up with the activities of research. The purpose of the act, therefore, was not to further extend investigation, nor to multiply reports of experiments; neither was it to provide for extension teaching. Its purpose was to combine the results of the work of the experiment stations with the experience of the best farmers, and by means of local demonstrations on actual farms to increase the tangible results of agricultural research. In this act for the first time home economics was included in federal legislation aimed at the improvement of rural conditions.

By the terms of this act each state accepting its provisions enjoyed an initial appropriation of $10,000 for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1914. This amount is to be increased annually for a period of eight years on the basis of the agricultural population as determined by the next preceding census. The annual increase to Illinois is something over $12,000. States accepting the provisions of the act are to furnish an equal amount of funds to be devoted to the purposes described in the act. Such funds may be raised by state or county appropriation, individual subscription, membership fees in local associations, or by any other method which the state of the locality may devise.

Cooperation.

The title of the Smith-Lever act declares the work to be cooperative between the United States Department of Agriculture and the Agricultural colleges of the several states, the requirement that the people of the state shall provide an amount of money equal to that appropriated by the federal government emphasizing the idea of cooperation. The University of Illinois, which under the law becomes the custodian of the funds apportioned to Illinois and is made responsible for their administration, has carried the idea of cooperation one step further by working, not independently, nor with individuals, but with local groups, societies, or associations especially formed for the purpose.

Procedure.

The Smith-Lever act does not instruct as to details of procedure in the demonstration service, but provides that the work shall be carried on in such manner as may be mutually agreed upon by the Secretary of Agriculture and the agricultural college of the state concerned. Under the agreement with the United States Department of Agriculture this service in Illinois is discharged thru resident "advisers", who are selected and employed for their knowledge of the most recent results in agricultural science and for their ability to work with progressive farmers upon the practical problems of the farm.

Such resident adviser becomes well acquainted with the people of his county and thoroughly identified with their conditions and needs. The character of the work is of such nature and the relations to the public funds are such that he should be under the local management of a strong association of representative men in whom the public has confidence. The expense involved makes it necessary that a district as large as a county should work together for the employment of an adviser and for the support of such other activities as shall make the work effective.

The first step, therefore, for any community desiring this service is to effect such an organization. Great care and thought must be taken even in the preliminary steps in order that the organization shall be representative and that it cover the county, for if the movement is started by individuals not representative or by those whose incentive is to secure a position for some local favorite, the effort is doomed to failure. To meet squarely the intent of the act should be the only aim of the community, and to build up this spirit is a preliminary which is necessary to ultimate success. It is important, moreover, that the preliminary work be thoroughly done, to the end that when the adviser is secured he may begin at once his real service and not be compelled to spend valuable time in patching up a half-completed organization. It is not the intent of the act that its funds be expended or its men engaged in the perfecting of organizations or in the raising of funds. This labor should be done by the community itself. Whether this preliminary work occupies a month or a year is of minor consequence; what does matter is the ultimate strength of the organization and its definiteness of purpose. In this undertaking the University is ready, thru the office of the State Leader, to give such advice as may be suggested by

This action has been expected at Columbia since the poor showing of the local university crews at Poughkeepsie on June 17th.

Subscribers are earnestly requested to call promptly and take up their tickets and in this way assist the management and boost the Chautauqua. By this means considerable expense may be saved and the directors, who do much work without any compensation, will be greatly assisted. It is a big job to collect for 4,000 tickets and your assistance will be greatly appreciated.

In order that we may be able to provide the camps with the kind of tents they desire, we request that persons who expect to rent tents will be kind enough to indicate to us the size and kind of tent desired.

HAD NARROW ESCAPE.

Two young ladies driving a spirited horse cast on East State street Thursday evening had a narrow escape from injury when the animal became frightened at a passing street car. The horse made a dash for the large plate glass window in the New Pacific Hotel Cafe. It was caught by bystanders and the ladies escaped with nothing more serious than fright. It seems that even the horse knew where to go to get good things to eat at popular prices.

The venerable Verin Daniels and three grandsons, left yesterday for Clear Lake for an outing of a few days.

Vaughn pitched a great game up to the last, Williams' errors giving the champions their first two runs. Bender was wild and poorly supported. Kelly, the Indianapolis recruit, fanned as a pinch hitter in the ninth.

FARMER SHOULD ATTEND A TRACTOR DEMONSTRATION

He Can Learn Not Only of Tractors But Useful Facts About Farming

"The progressive farmer owes it both to himself and to his business to attend at least one of the tractor demonstrations to be held this summer," said L. W. Dickerson of the University, in reply to a direct question. "He should arrange to stay the full four days and to make as careful a study of the machines shown as possible. There is no question but that the relative economy of tractor and horse power is one of the most important questions now before the Illinois farmer, and these demonstrations offer an exceptional opportunity for him to make a close study of several phases of the question."

One point he can study to good advantage is the matter of practicability and ease of operation as applied to his farming conditions. He will see under approximate working conditions perhaps thirty-five or forty of the leading tractors on the market, all working under as nearly equal conditions as it is possible to secure. He can see the difference in the ease with which the different machines are handled, and should be able to form a very good opinion as to which of them would best suit his own farm conditions. This certainly would be much more than taking the word of the tractor salesman, who must, of necessity, be partial to his own type of machine.

The other points which can well be studied together are the matter of accessibility of working parts and the protection afforded to the same. These are two points which are often almost entirely overlooked by the would-be purchaser and points which are well worthy of his most careful study since they will be, perhaps, the deciding factors in determining the amount of lost time and the depreciation of the machine. I know of no better opportunity to study these than to go from one to the other of the various tractors in operation and to discuss the points with the salesmen and operator of the different machines. It will not require great inducement on the farmer's part to get these men to bring out their own good points and their competitors' weakness.

It should be distinctly kept in mind, however, that one of the most important phases of tractor operation will hardly be touched upon by what the farmer sees at these demonstrations and that is the matter of reliability and depreciation. It should be kept in mind that by far the majority of operators in charge will be experts, men who have spent much time and study in learning to operate these machines so as to make as good a showing as possible. Everything that can be done before hand to do away with any possibility of a break down or loss of time in the operation has been carefully seen to so that any trouble which does develop will be largely accidental, and need hardly be charged up against the machine. The only light which the observer can secure on the matter of depreciation is thru the study of accessibility and protection of working parts as already indicated.

Another benefit which the farmer can secure is the opportunity to meet and talk with the various experts connected with the different exhibits and to meet fellow farmers from all over the country, and to discuss with them the various topics relating not only to the tractors shown, but to other phases of farm work. There is nothing which will broaden the farmer so much as this kind of experience, and the more he gets in this sort of educational experience the more benefit he can get from his week's time.

It should be emphasized, however, that the tractor demonstrations are not alone for the farmer himself but for the whole family. The wife, a active partner in his farming business, and the boys upon whose declaration will rest the success of the farm a few years hence, are vitally interested.

Cow Peas in Corn.

Answering the question, "What do you say about sowing cow peas in corn around say July 15, for pasture late in the fall?"—L. C. Brown, in The Farmers' Review, Chicago, says:

"This is a good idea. Sow one bushel of cow peas just ahead of the last cultivation of the corn. These may then be hogged down with the corn, or they may be pastured off after the corn is husked. Of course the plants would be killed by the time the corn was husked; still they would furnish considerable feed, and the remaining vines and stalks would make first class material for turning under the following spring. If one wants to get the maximum feeding value from either soy beans or cow peas they should be sown earlier, so that they are at best feeding stage when the corn is ready to hog off."

"The value of cow peas, sown in corn for plowing under is held much more highly in southern Illinois than in the northern section of the state. One good farmer down there relates that within the last eight years he has built up one field from 25 bushels of corn per acre, to nearly 100 bushels per acre—all by sowing cow peas in corn, pasturing off with cattle and hogs, plowing under the residue of the pea crop the following spring. Also many are finding it profitable to sow cow peas on early potato ground, after the crop has been harvested."

Threshing on Decker Farm

Threshing has begun in the Arcadia and Litterberry neighborhoods. This work was in progress yesterday on the farm of William Decker. He has twenty acres and the yield promises to be about the average for this year, twelve to fifteen bushels to the acre. L. H. Maul of the same neighborhood has twenty acres in wheat which has been cut and will be put in the stack. Mr. Maul believes that wheat later will bring a higher price.

It has taken a long time to prove to doubting people the real necessity of doing more with less effort and expense. Now, as the season approaches for plowing the stubble, hot, dry long days of work are ahead. The horse can not and does not stand up under the strain. ## AVERY TRACTOR

One that works night and day if you desire.

The principal question that interests the "up-to-date" farmer is whether to use horse power or machine power. If you use horses you need an extra number, which in time of "peace," or in other words, when not working, are a heavy useless expense. With the Tractor, think of the difference. "No work, no pay." Or, when not at work no expense to the owner.

Experience has taught us that in fall plowing you should plow six to nine inches deep, so as to kill weeds and make a good deep seed bed, one that will preserve the moisture from winter rains and snow, something that will double your yield.

The Avery Tractor is built close at home, is one of the first in the field, and is built by people who know how Avery Tractors are standardized. They're past the experimental stage. They have proven their superiority in all the field tests. That's why we can and do give exceptionally strong guarantees, which are backed by the Avery Company.

Remember this special warranty: Avery Tractors are guaranteed to develop their full rated horse power or more, either on the belt or on the draw bar.

A careful study of the Avery catalog which we will be glad to furnish you will convince you that we have a little better machine than the best yet built by any other concern.

And, again, we will be only too glad to show you this famous engine in operation in the farmer's hands. The boys who have used them for the past year can tell you.

We carry a sample Avery Tractor at all times on our sample floor, and we will be more than pleased to show you how easy it is to handle.

This is the Tractor for LONG LIFE, SATISFACTORY SERVICE AND EASE OF OPERATION. Come in and see for yourself. We can show you how we can handle any fuel that it is possible for tractors to use, kerosene, gasoline or naphtha.

When Young Men and Old Soldiers Met in 1840

(By Isabel Jamison, for State Historical Society.)

(Continued from Thursday.) Without going into the question of whether or not Martin Van Buren had sowed the wind, he certainly began reaping the whirlwind in 1839. Business definitely and decidedly collapsed. There was no money and little credit in the western country, and it did not soothe the pangs of the hungry and thirsty pioneers to read of "Matty" Van Buren rolling thru the streets of Washington in his cushioned coach of state, or reclining luxuriously upon his imported, upholstered furniture. His gold teaspoons, duly exploited in the columns of the Whig papers, were a direct slap at the enforced simplicity of western table furnishings. All the effete luxuries which wrapped him so softly about, were, in fact, so many direct insults to the horny-handed toilers of the middle west. William Henry Harrison, who drank hard cider out of a gourd, was a man after their own hearts. The thing to do was to elect him.

A special session of the legislature during the winter of 1839-19 brought to the state capital, Springfield, in one way or another, the political leaders of both parties. Also there were a number of bright young lawyers assembled at Springfield to attend the court sessions, very few of whom were of the "say nothing but saw wood" variety. Thus it happened that the most brilliant orators of the state, all interested in politics and the sound of their own voices, met night after night in political debate in the hall of representatives. The new state house not being ready for occupancy at that time, the house met in the Second Presbyterian church, a brick building on Fourth street between Washington and Adams. It was at that time the largest church building in the central and northern part of the state, but was torn down in 1875.

Many of the speeches delivered on the occasions of these debates were printed in pamphlet form, and sent out to do missionary work among the voters, thereby creating a state-wide interest in the campaign.

During this campaign the convention plan of nominating candidates became a political factor, and state conventions were held by both parties. At the Democratic convention of December 10, 1839, various resolutions were passed containing a scathing denunciation of Whig individuals, Whig policies and the Whig party in general. The Whigs were so much incensed by this direct attack that a meeting of the state leaders was called for December 11, at the Hall of Representatives, at which Cyrus Edwards of Madison county, president, J. J. Hardin of Morgan, chairman of the committee to draft resolutions, reported to the meeting that it was apparent to all earnest-thinking, fair-minded men that the time was approaching when a proper organization of the Whig party would be necessary to save the country; therefore, it was recommended that a convention of the Whig young men of Illinois be held in Springfield on Wednesday after the second Monday in June for the purpose of more effectively organizing the Whig party of the state. After able speeches by Messrs. Baker, Browning, Field and others, the resolutions were adopted.

Abraham Lincoln, of Sangamon, offered for adoption, a preamble and resolutions, calling a meeting the following night to debate with the opposition party the resolutions passed at the Van Buren state convention on the 10th inst., denouncing the Whig party and policy.

The resolution being adopted, Mr. Lincoln was nominated to open the debate for the Whig side. The debate took place Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings, Mr. Lincoln leading in a speech of great force and wit. Mr. Douglas replied for the Democrats, and B. D. Baker wound up the debate. These political pyrotechnics at the state capital attracted great attention, being exploited in the local papers and widely disseminated in the shape of pamphlets.

"In his 'Personal Recollections,' John M. Palmer mentions visiting Springfield in December, 1839, to obtain a license to practice law. He said, 'The city was filled with strangers, including most of the public men of the state.' He attended a public meeting held in the Second Presbyterian church, and heard speeches made by Alex. F. Field, secretary of state, John Calhoun, O. L. Browning and Stephen A. Douglas. He added, 'Discussions of the character were kept up night after night.'

A second meeting was held by the young Whigs at Springfield, Jan. 3, 1840, at which a more formal organization of the Sangamon county Whigs was effected; and recommendations were made that the Whigs in the various counties of the state held meetings for the purpose of electing delegates, any number they might choose, to represent their respective counties at a great central meeting to be held in Springfield on Wednesday after the first Monday in June. The call for this meeting appeared regularly in each issue of the Sangamon Journal thereafter, and the newspaper correspondents throughout the state began to report their counties having taken favorable action in the matter. An address to the people of the state was prepared, and a confidential circular was sent out to some prominent Whigs in each county, unfolding a plan of the state central committee for getting into touch with each county of the state. The counties were to be divided into annual districts, each having a subcommittee whose duty it was to make out a list of the voters and their political preferences; to watch doubtful voters and supply first aid to wavering minds, and especially to report progress the first of each month.

About this time (the latter part of February) the old soldiers of the Northwestern Army under command of General Harrison during the late war with Great Britain, held a meeting in Springfield, at which John Lindsay presided; a suggestion made by a Jacksonville patriot in the last issue of the Old Soldier was adopted. This was to the effect that the old soldiers who had served under General Harrison in the last war should meet at some central point in convention on July 4. An address was prepared, signed by those present at the meeting:

"The Springfield old soldiers desire to second the convention suggestion most cordially, and invite the Sangamon county old soldiers who served under Harrison to meet March 14 at the courthouse."

The meeting took place on the above date, with Josiah B. Smith in the chair. Judge Logan was present, and, being invited to address the meeting, responded in a pertinent and happy manner. A resolution was offered by Dr. Toild, in which the old soldiers pledged themselves to use all honorable means to elect Harrison, and further that the old soldiers of the state, including all who had served their country in any way, be invited to meet in convention at Springfield June 1, the date of the Whig meeting. These resolutions were adopted and signed by those present. John O. Verstreet, a soldier of the time of Washington, attended this meeting. The Whig committee of correspondence, in accordance with a resolution adopted at a meeting of the Morgan county old soldiers April 11, (To be continued)

RECEIPTS OF GRASS CATTLE SHOW STEADY INCREASE

High Prices and Good Demand for Corn Fed Stock Expected.

Alexander, Ward and Conover in reviewing the Chicago livestock market have the following to say.

Cattle. Receipts of cattle at Chicago and all western markets show a liberal increase over last week. The increase at western markets has been in grass cattle. Market ruled uneven. The demand seems to be pretty good for the cheaper grades and fairly good for cattle selling between $9.00 to $10.00, but limited just now for the high priced cattle, but as the summer season advances, we look for a change, and a greater spread in prices, as we believe the receipts of good matured corn fed cattle will gradually decrease during the next 60 to 90 days, especially the good weight and heavy matured cattle. We also look for a good demand and high prices but believe that we will have fairly liberal receipts of grass cattle from now on.

Alexander, Ward and Conover in reviewing the Chicago livestock market have the following to say.

Cattle. Receipts of cattle at Chicago and all western markets show a liberal increase over last week. The increase at western markets has been in grass cattle. Market ruled uneven. The demand seems to be pretty good for the cheaper grades and fairly good for cattle selling between $9.00 to $10.00, but limited just now for the high priced cattle, but as the summer season advances, we look for a change, and a greater spread in prices, as we believe the receipts of good matured corn fed cattle will gradually decrease during the next 60 to 90 days, especially the good weight and heavy matured cattle. We also look for a good demand and high prices but believe that we will have fairly liberal receipts of grass cattle from now on.

Partial list of our sales this week: Ed Campbell, Ill. 60, 1442, $10.85.

SELLING OF BROADER AND MORE PROMISCUOUS CHARACTER BREAKS

Depresses Prices of Erstwhile Favorites to Lowest Quotations of the Year and for a Time Causes Unsettled in Standard Shares.

New York, July 13.—Selling of a broader and more promiscuous character than that on any recent period broke out afresh today, depressing prices of erstwhile favorites to lowest prices of the year and for a time causing uneasiness in the standard shares. The decline gathered much of its momentum from the short interest.

The motor group was the chief center of disturbances those issues recording extreme declines of four to seven points, with 11 for General Motors, while stocks of accessories declined 2 to 4 points. United States Industrial Alcohol struck the new level of 97, a maximum loss of 32 points since last Saturday but closed at 103.

Munitions were subject to further discouraging reports regarding the loss or cancellation of foreign contracts, with recessions of 3 to 5 points in Crucible Steel, New York Airbrake, American and Baldwin Locomotives, Westinghouse and Continental Can, while Bethlehem Steel at one time registered a decline of 23 points at 419½, but closed at 434½.

United States Steel lost only a substantial fraction notwithstanding its large turnover. Among rails, Reading, Canadian Pacific, St. Paul, Great Northern and Norfolk and Western were lower by 1 to 1½ points. Coppers were only moderately affected, but Mexicans, particularly petroleum showed little resistance. Total sales of stocks amounted to 685,000 shares.

In its more significant aspects, the feature of the day was the advance in the Bank of England rate to six percent, the first raise since August 8th, 1914, when the discount was reduced to five percent.

Free selling of Anglo-French 5s was again the noteworthy feature of the heavy bond market.

BROADENING OF EUROPEAN DEMAND ADVANCES WHEAT

Close, Altho Unsettled Is 1½ to 2½ of a Cent Net Higher—Corn Reflects Strength of Wheat—Chicago, July 13.—Wheat scored fresh gains in value today owing largely to reports of a broadening European demand. The market altho unsettled at the close was ½ to ¾c net higher, with July at $1.10½ and Sept. at $1.11½. In corn the outcome was ¼c to ½c up, oats were down a shade to ¼c and provisions unchanged to 7½c lower.

Higher prices for new wheat at Kansas City helped to rally the market here as the session approached a close. Exporters were said to be paying 2c to 3c advance in Kansas, Omaha was said to have sold 100,000 bushels to the seaboard and there were reports of good bids at the Gulf of Mexico. Mills in the southwest complained of slowness of sales by farmers. Corn reflected the strength of wheat. Absence of rain acted also as an incentive to buy, and the were late advices that owing to lack of moisture the leaves in Southern Illinois fields were beginning to curl.

Unwelcome high temperatures and active demand from the seaboard tended to lift oats, free selling by leading houses, tho, was in the end more than an offset. Provisions gave way as a result of lack of support, higher quotations on hogs appeared to be virtually ignored.

Every Woman Should Use Every Week Shampoo

To Preserve Her Hair

If women would use an Anti-Septic Oil Shampoo instead of the soaps and shampoos now so commonly used, they would improve rather than injure the delicate hair plants.

The hair plant is an oil plant and to wash it with soaps or shampoos containing free alkali works great injury. It not only cuts the natural oil of the hair but it destroys the fatty roots of the hair plant, causing the hair to come out.

EVERY WEEK ANTI-SEPTIC OIL SHAMPOO cleanses and purifies the scalp, dissolves and removes dandruff, opens the clogged hair cells and leaves the scalp soft and healthy.

It leaves the hair soft, lustrous, fluffy and easy to handle.

Excellent for men and children also.

STATE FAIR SCHOOL ELIGIBLES
WERE ANNOUNCED THURSDAY

Glenn Ebrey and Harold Hamm Can Go as Representatives From Morgan County.

Glenn Ebrey of College Corners school, Route No. 2, Franklin and Harold Hamm of Concord school will go to the state fair school for boys from Morgan county this year. The announcement was made by County Superintendent H. H. Vasconcellos yesterday. The Ebrey boy had the highest average in the county schools and the Hamm boy the highest average in the town schools.

This will be the seventh annual session of the Boy's State Fair school and will be held on the state fair grounds at Springfield, Sept. 15 to 23 inclusive.

The school has been successful beyond the expectations of the commission in charge. The interest in farmer's institutes the past few years and the hearty co-operation of the county superintendents of schools has resulted in increased attendance each year.

The first year of the school the enrollment was 124; the second year 194, fifth year 212, sixth year 269. From indications the attendance this year will exceed that of all former years.

The state board of agriculture realizing the great educational value of the school and the advertising it will give the state fair are anxious that it be made not only a permanent feature but one of the big features of the fair. It is the intention to ask the legislature for funds with which to build a permanent building for the use of the school.

Adjutant General Frank S. Dickson of the Illinois National Guard has given his personal attention to the establishment of the camp. The boys at former schools have reason to remember the excellence of the camp equipment. General Dickson will again have charge of the encampment of the school and will give personal attention to the sanitary condition of the camp. He also will have a personal representative on the grounds to give the boys some physical exercises and to police the grounds. Dr. John Dill Robinson superintendent of the department of education of the state fair will look after the health of the boys. With all of these arrangements the commission feels that it can safely guarantee the health, comfort and happiness of the boys who attend.

The commission has secured W. S. Booth, assistant superintendent of public instruction as principal of the school. He will be assisted by Prof. A. W. Nolan of the University of Illinois and A. E. Gilpin of Centralia. These three gentlemen with their assistants will be on the ground during the entire session of the school.

PARK BOARD NOTES.

The park board met in regular session last evening. Permission was given the chautauqua management to pitch a camp of tents on the hill west of the gun club grounds as there will not be enough space east of the lagoon in the vicinity of the great tent.

Permission was also given the chautauqua management to park a row of automobiles along the north edge of the lake, between the water and hitch rack if desired.

The purchase of whirling nozzles for the flower bed pipes was announced and the successful working of the same.

The committee to secure the removal of the boat now in the boat-house generously donated the park board reported that the owner was out of the city but would soon be back. The committee was instructed to get that boat out very soon even if it had to be set adrift in the lake as the boys want to use the building for dressing purposes.

Permission was given the Murrayville boy scouts to spend a day in the southeast corner of the grounds provided they are accompanied by an adult who will be responsible for their conduct.

The water trough on the northwest corner of the square was reported out of order and a committee was appointed to have it placed in commission as soon as possible and also to clear out the drain from the central well.

SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT
MOVES GOODS HERE

Supt. H. A. Perrin, the recently elected superintendent of Jacksonville schools, is now shipping his household goods here from Lincoln. He and his family will occupy the Babb property at No. 1955 West College avenue. Supt. Perrin has not quite completed his work at Normal university but at no very distant date will come to Jacksonville to enter actively upon the work of the local superintendency.

FINE WHEAT ON

MCCORMICK LAND.

James McCormick of the southeast part of the county finished threshing forty acres of Turkey red hard wheat that yielded thirty bushels to the acre and twenty acres of soft, smooth head which yielded 27 bushels to acre. He delivered all at the Clemens elevator and found it weighed 62 pounds to the measured bushel and it brought him $1.03 a bushel. Naturally Mr. McCormick thinks that a mighty good showing for this year.

Hardin Cox of Joplin, Mo., is in the city the guest of his brother, Jerry. It is seventeen years since the gentleman left his native county for the state across the river and he sees a great many changes all around.

DECATUR HAS SECURED
NEW HIGH SCHOOL COACH.

Verne E. Rodgers, Former All-Star Quarter Back Will Drill Athletes.

Decatur Review.—D. H. S. is due for a boost in athletics thru the appointment, effective in September of Verne E. Rodgers, former Michigan all-star quarter back and all around athlete, to the place of head athletic coach and history instructor in the Decatur high school vice Teller L. Mead, resigned.

Mr. Rodgers, star athlete of Alma college, Michigan, where he won his A. B. degree, is widely known in northern sports circles. He has made a marked success during the past two years as history instructor in the Hastings, Mich., high school, where he had charge of athletics, turning out winning football and baseball teams last year. In his last year at college he made the all-state quarterback position in Michigan, was captain of his baseball team and a star performer in the basketball team.

At present the new coach is sitting at the feet of Bob Zuppke at the University of Illinois and learning all that master coach can teach him of physical education. He is also taking a post graduate in history at the state university.

"I believe that Mr. Rodgers is going to make one of the best athletic directors we have ever had in Decatur," said Superintendent J. O. Engleman, who returned from his eastern trip Wednesday. "He has made a success in school work after graduation and has the personality which is best in the handling of high school athletes. Himself an all around athlete, he has had practical playing experience in every form of school sport and is an expert organizer. I shall recommend him to the board of education and am certain that he will be elected to the position here."

Mr. Howe recently erected at his home property there a brick building and will operate an ice cream manufacturing plant there. He will devote most of his time to the making of candies and ice cream. G. A. Muehlhausen, who for a number of years has successfully conducted the South Side Bakery on Morton avenue, has leased the store room just vacated by Mr. Howe and will occupy it as soon as some changes and improvements are made. The room already has a large oven which was installed some years ago for the Davis bakery. Mr. Muehlhausen will continue to conduct his store on Morton avenue, but the bakery will be at the West State street stand.

July clearance sale. Greatest Bargains yet read of, some of them in our ad on page 3.

W. E. BOSTON'S STORE ROBBED. Some time Wednesday night or Thursday morning thieves gained entrance to the grocery store of W. E. Boston at the corner of East College and Hardin avenues and robbed the cash register of change amounting to about $5.

The only indication of the manner in which entrance was gained was thru a transom which had been left open. The transom, however, is a high one and while the police can figure how a ladder might have been used from the outside they can't figure out how they got out again. So far no clew has been found which would give the identity of the culprits.

We have a few of those $3.50 coats and trousers. T. M. TOMLINSON.

POLICE CAPTURE

Two strangers giving their names as Clair and Murray were arrested by Officers White, Vieira and Jordan just after disposing of some brass at the yard of J. Cohen and Son.

The men had brass that had a money value of $8.25 and Mr. Cohen had paid them when the arrest occurred. The men claimed to have gotten the brass in Hannibal, Mo. In addition to the brass the men had implements on them that led the police to the belief that they are professional crooks. Each man carried a knife with a long blade, both of them a violation of the law. In addition they had a 32-calibre revolver, a flash light and two skeleton keys that would open almost any ordinary lock.

BUY YOUR FAMILY

A Hammock at Lane's Book store. We have some at prices that will interest you.

CARE FOR THE HORSES.

The great heat of the present time is very severe on horses and men not thoughtful or experienced are very apt to injure the animal so faithful to his master. Yesterday afternoon a horse attached to a delivery wagon was overcome with the heat on South West street and while the poor creature didn't die he suffered not a little. There are various merciful devices and one of them is the use of the city watering troughs by residents of the place.

Too much care cannot be taken by farmers and others with their horses during this extremely hot weather. It is said to be very dangerous to permit horses at work in corn fields to bite off corn leaves. The green corn leaves taken into the horse's stomach while the temperature is so high and while the horse is at work seem to form an indigestible mass which may produce instant death.

We have a few of those $3.50 coats and trousers. T. M. TOMLINSON.

MORE TOURISTS

W. C. Adams passed thru Jacksonville yesterday with his family from Bloomington enroute to Longton near Wichita, Kansas, in an automobile. They expect to make the trip in about three weeks, and are camping along the way. As they passed around the square they noticed the sign above Tomlinson's clothing store and stopped to call on Mr. Tomlinson, as his name is the same as the person they will visit in Kansas. The fact that there are very few people by that name thru-out the country led them to think that there might be some relation. This however was not true as far as was known. Mr. Adams reported good roads so far and said the only draw back was the hot weather.

POLICE BELIEVE THEY HAVE CONFIDENCE MAN UNDER ARREST

Colored Man Has Purse and $100 Bill—Local Bunko Games Recalled.

After an exciting chase Chief Davis and the entire police force captured Charles Mayhew a colored confidence man late Thursday afternoon but his partner made his escape. Mayhew was captured in Routt street and his partner when he saw the officers make the arrest vaulted a fence into a corn field near Alex Platt's residence and the entire force spent several hours searching they were unable to locate him.

It is probably that Mayhew and his partner have operated in this city before. About two years ago Dallas Lee a colored man was separated from home hard earned dollars by two colored men who worked the old $100 bill racket on him. More recently a colored woman of the city was pried loose from about $200 in a similar way. In each instance the men escaped and Chief Davis is of the opinion that Mayhew, the man under arrest is one of the pair who operated here before.

One woman who refused to give her name went to the police station after Mayhew was arrested and identified him. She told the chief that she had been relieved of $25, on the pocketbook game. She promised to return today when further action will be taken. So far as can be learned from those who saw the two men the one who escaped was slim and dark and was dressed in dark clothes.

Several Working Ways

The men have various ways of working. The manner in which Lee was bunkoed was when one of the men engaged him in conversation on the street. While they were talking the partner picked up a pocketbook a few feet away from them. The attention of Lee was called to the man picking up the pocketbook and he was approached and the stranger talking to Lee said they had seen him pick up the pocketbook and wanted to be in on a division of what was in it. The three then repaired to some out of the way place where the pocketbook was opened and it was found to contain a $100 bill. The changing of the bill so that each one could get his share was then proceeded with and when the operation was thru Lee or whoever the victim happened to be was trimmed of all his cash.

The woman who was bunkoed more recently was relieved of her cash by being promised a certain amount of money if she would help get change for a bill of large denomination. She even went so far as to borrow some money to change the bill.

Man Arrested Had $100 Bill

Thursday the men arrived in town and attempted to work their several kinds of bunco games on a number of people. One of them was Mrs. Samuel McAllister who lives on South West street. She reported the matter to Chief Davis and the police immediately started in search of the men. At Mrs. McAllister's the men wanted to get a place to board for their mother who they said had recently sold a place in Oklahoma and wanted to come to Jacksonville to live. They asked Mrs. McAllister a number of questions about where she did her banking and others that aroused her suspicions.

Mayhew was finally located in Routt street and was placed under arrest. When searched at the station he had on his person the pocketbook with the $100 bill. Chief Davis would like to have anyone whom the men tried to bunco come to the station and identify the prisoner as he intends to push the case vigorously.

Mr. Fitzpatrick is seventy-five years of age but is still strong and active and fully able to "deliver a good day's work." He has the credit of being one of the oldest sewing machine agents in the central states and has engaged in that business for thirty-four years. It is recorded that he sold about 18,000 machines during that period in Morgan and surrounding counties. E. J. Howells, district superintendent of the Central Union Telephone company, returned home yesterday from a visit of several weeks in California. #### MADE VISIT IN EAST.

James Petefish of Litterberry was in the city yesterday calling on numerous friends. He has just returned from Virginia where he went with Dr. J. M. Wolfe and son. He said the large amount of macadam roads wonderfully impressed him. The country is hilly and has grand scenery but the land is poor and the people not wealthy yet they are manifesting commendable zeal in the construction of good highways and that in the southwest part of the state.

D. P. Sherrod of Bloomington was attracted by business interests to the city yesterday.
